Waiting on God

We have spent the last three days of the last year waiting on God. We have done this for a number of years and have been rewarded by many revelations that we shared over the years. This year is our year of supernatural open doors as God opens unbelievable doors for his children. An official countdown to the coming of Jesus. Alleluia!

Prophets I respect

Matthew A Daniel

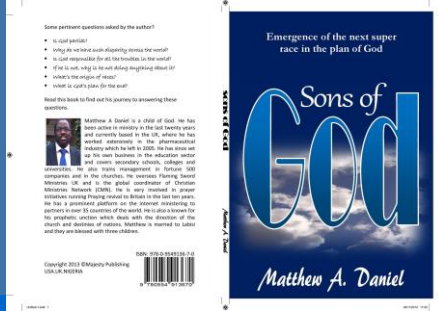

In addition, we have also listened to the prophets we trust and found the revelation to align with other credible prophets. Kenneth Copeland calls this year of the overcomers, Keith Butler, year of open doors, Jerry Savelle, year of Visitations, Manifestations and Demonstrations. We are excited about what is about to happen in the coming year and we are grateful for the grace of God. This has assured us without a shadow of doubt that we heard from God.

2015-End- excerpts from “Sons of God” (2013).

When my journey started about twenty years ago, all I wanted were answers to my questions. I was accusing God of bias and for being unfair. He had patiently shown me over the years how he gave everyone equal opportunities but how poor choices have brought us to this point. I discovered how human greed has always been blamed on God and how sin has decimated humanity.

On my journey, God started revealing things to me about the past and more poignantly the future. The revelations have humbled me as time goes by and I have come to the point where I fully bow down to the awesomeness of God.

One very powerful thing he told me was that he tries to unite but Satan tries to divide. So anything that divides is not from God.

He also told me that just because he knows all things do not mean he chooses for everybody. So that means that just because God knows that you will make a dumb choice does not mean he has allowed it nor made that choice for you.

I was also able to know that he is sovereign but leaves certain things to the realm of men. He gave us free will and allows us to exercise that will.

God will not do things without showing his friends and thanks to Jesus, I'm his friend. This is the purely revelatory part of this book and you will need to read with an open mind and prayerfully. I urge you to be like the Bereans who listened and then went home to study the scriptures to prove if it was true. This is my gift contribution to mankind as I serve my God.

"2015 will mark the spiritual landmark commencement of the last lap in the plans of God. All things will start to rearrange according to his divine plans and nobody will be able to do anything about it. The kingdoms of this world will start to crumble and unravel as the kingdom of God starts to take over. In order to prove this, there will be aberrations in climatic conditions. Volcanoes that have slept in certain places will start to get active, earthquakes, tremors, tornadoes and constant flooding will continue. All that can shake will be shaken. These unpredictable patterns will continue in many places.

The economy of nations will continue to suffer as hitherto great nations will struggle to balance the books. This will be especially with the west. God has gone for the reason behind their pride which is their financial might. They will never quite get back to how it was. This will make them desperate to get back to what worked in the past which was to destabilise other countries in order to plunder their wealth. This will not quite work this time. They will have to adjust to the new realities this will hurt at first. The BRICS, which represent emerging economies, will make significant economic gains with China at the fore-front. This dominance will not slow down, it will evolve. China and India will make significant gains in Africa especially in construction and medicine. No nation will quite dominate the globe ever again. The west will continue to leverage knowledge while the east will continue to leverage labour and manufacturing.

The last economic frontier will be Africa with her vast resources and scope for development, she will be courted by all.

Africa will finally come alive and make significant gains as God restores all things before the end. A new crop of leaders will arise that will save the continent. They will be completely different from this present crop. Many

Africans in diaspora will go back to help with the rapid development of the continent. Some vital inventions shall come out of Africa and the wise men there will be listened to.

Israel will be more isolated as she is betrayed by the west. The lord will preserve her in the days to come. Many of the Middle Eastern countries will become closer allies against Israel.

Many of the churches will be greatly decimated as the lord rearranges his kingdom. There will be smaller but highly effective churches emerging. Many fresh preachers with heavens agenda will emerge and the old rot will be replaced quickly. The remnant will be shoved to the limelight.

There will be an emergence of a new crop of people from out of all the races of the world, these will be known as the sons of God. They will defy the direction of flow and prosper when the world is in recession, they will glow when darkness sets in. They will hold the torch to the existence of God in the days to come. This will be the last revival. They will be able to do this because they are led by the spirit of God.

Great darkness will come over Europe and gradually the rest of the world and the sons of God will become targets for persecution. The lord will cut short the days for the sake of the Saints.

The end will not come before the son of perdition is revealed. This individual will be the product of a spiritual alliance between the Catholic Church and the Muslim world. A man that represents peace in a world in turmoil this will be the beginning of tricky days.

Islam will continue to get bigger and by the end will be formidable and together with those Rome will control, would be most of the people on earth. It will be a marriage of religion, politics and money.

I'm glad to say that at the end of all of these, the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of our lord and of his Christ and he shall reign forever and ever. Amen. Revelation 11:15. Shalom.
